THREE DICKSON PEOPLE HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Joe Lovell, Miss Georgie Donaldson and Mrs. Minnie Wilson had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt last Sunday afternoon while out driving in Mr. Lovell's Ford touring car.

The accident occurred near where the Burns pike crosses the railroad at Colesburg, and it seems that the accident was caused by some boys who stood in the road until Mr. Lovell practically stopped the car, then the boys jumped on the running board of the car, and as they did so, Mr. Lovell's attention was attracted to them in trying to get them off and the car ran off into the ditch and was upset. Mr. Lovell and Mrs. Wilson were able to free themselves from under the car, but Miss Donaldson had to be assisted and was injured worse than the other occupants. Her hip was severely injured, but no bones broken. She was removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Springer in West Dickson where medical attention was given. Mrs. Wilson received several bruises about the body, but was able to go to her store on Monday. Mr. Lovell escaped with only a slight scratch on the hand.

The car was only slightly damaged, and when turned back into the road was given a crank and started as though nothing had happened.

There has been considerable complaint, not only in the neighborhood where this accident occurred, but in Dickson and other sections, of boys doing as these boys did, and this should be a warning to them to stop it before something more serious happens. And it should also be a warning to auto drivers to always keep their hand upon the throttle and their eye upon the rail.

Rev. J. F. F. Kayhoe, who has been spending his vacation at Monticello, will preach in the St. John's Lutheran Church at this place Sunday, August 13th, 10:30 a. m., on "The Eye of the Soul." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

WEST PINNEY.

Mrs. Sam Fuqua spent last week at her father's, John Potter, on Garner's Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Donegan visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Ernest Betts, this week-end.

Miss Georgie Bryant had for her guests Sunday, Misses Mittie and Lettie Seymour, Bessie and Fannie Bowen, Lela and Mattie Donegan, Messrs. Bud and Monroe Baker, Curt and Dee Fields, Harris Fuqua, Dewey Donegan, Hubert Bruce and Corby Adcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Mat Work were the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Fields, Sunday.

Dr. J. E. Bryant left Saturday on an extended tour through West Tennessee.

Miss Leona Donegan spent last week at her uncle's Jack Yates, on Garner's Creek.

Messrs. Seymour, Harden Street and Sam Fuqua spent the week-end in Nashville.

Error in Fair Catalogue.

The management of the Dickson County Fair wish to take this means of calling attention to an error in the Live Stock Department of their catalogue which is now being distributed. Classes Nos. 4, 5 and 6 under this department should read "Thoroughbred and Registered" instead of just "Registered."

Judging from the demand for catalogues and the interest being manifested for the welfare of the fair this fall, the indications are that Dickson County will have one of the best exhibits of live stock and farm products ever put on exhibition in this section of the state.

We understand that several districts are planning to compete for the grand special district prize, and a lively contest is looked for in this department. Several good amusement features have already been booked, and it seems now that the 1916 Dickson County Fair will surpass any previous one, both in entertainment and in an educational way. Begin now to prepare your exhibits and don't fail to be on hand.

TENNESSEE CITY.

Mrs. Burchard and Miss Susie Benell, of McKen, were guests of Miss McCord last Thursday.

A. R. Hayes has gone to Indianapolis to work for the Young Men's Christian Association.

It is Squire Harvey Ewing now, and still C. D. C. W. M. Lane.

A car load of lime was distributed to a few farmers here this week by the N. C. & St. L. Ry.

Died at this place Tuesday morning, Mrs. Mabel Fite, beloved wife of Less Fite of Murfreesboro. Mrs. Fite was one of those rare sweet Christian characters, who patiently and uncomplainingly bore her affliction. She had been here since last May, and her husband had given up all business and devoted himself completely to giving her his most loving care and attention. He was willing to give his all to save her bright young life. Had Mrs. Fite lived until next Sunday she would have been 24 years old. So young to die and yet with perfect faith in her Heavenly Father. We all sympathize with the bereaved ones. All of us who knew her loved her, and prayed earnestly for her recovery, if it was the will of God that she might live.

Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clement entertained recently with a reunion of the former's children at their home in West Dickson. The occasion also celebrated the anniversary of Mr. Clement's birth.

Dinner was served at noon, the table being set for fourteen. The birthday cake, decorated with sweet peas and place in a nest of delicate vines, formed the centre piece.

Seated at the table were the following children: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Allen, Memphis; Mrs. Yancey Brewer, Puryear; Mrs. W. H. Lashlee, Camden; Mrs. J. B. Walthour, Chattanooga; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clement, Dickson; Mr. and Mrs. J. Newt, Clement—recently married—Pegram; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Weems, and Mrs. Melvin Holland.

While the birthday cake was being cut, Mrs. Joe B. Weems read a very cleverly composed history in jingles of the home-coming of the children. West Dickson was very much alive with the voices of the fifteen grand children participating in the celebration.

Notice.

To the Voters of Dickson County: I wish to thank you one and all for the support you favored me with over the county, and especially to those who so freely took care of me and my horse through the campaign.

While I was defeated in my race, I feel victorious in a sense, as my race is well worth (to me) what I put into it. I never spent one Five Cents towards buying, influencing or securing votes in any way. I can truthfully say I made as clean a race as can be made for any office, and am not ashamed for the world to see my campaign in print. I also can repeat after Paul of old: "I fought a good fight, I kept the faith," and henceforth there was laid up for me a crown of defeat.

In conclusion, I want to congratulate the winner, W. C. Doty, who I take to be an honest, upright gentleman, and have all confidence in him making us a first-class Trustee.

I beg to remain a friend to you all; very truly,

G. R. RUSSELL,
Slayden, Tenn., Aug. 7, 1916.

The Senior Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, held its regular monthly business and social meeting with Miss Georgie Lee Jones Monday night. Elbert Adcox, the President, presided. Two new officers were elected—Miss Mary Holt as Secretary and Treasurer, and Miss Ione Edwards as Superintendent of Devotional Department. After the business was attended to, a social hour was enjoyed. Miss Ruth Carr of Nashville gave several musical numbers. A delicious ice-course was served late in the evening.

Card From G. A. Walton

To the Voters of Dickson County:

I wish to thank my friends for their support in the recent election, and also thank them for their kind hospitality they showed me in their homes. I feel very proud of the votes I received, as I was thrown out of my canvass five weeks from a severe attack of malarial fever. I feel like I did not have a fair chance in the race. I will now announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff two years from now. I hope then my friends will take my case into consideration and two years from now honor me with their support. I am sure no one would appreciate it more than I. Hoping Mr. Coleman the greatest success in his two years' official work.

Yours very truly,
G. A. WALTON.

Music to suit all tastes—popular, classical and sacred—incurred in the program of "The Dixie Players."

"The Dixie Players."

There has been organized for some months at Dickson a seven-piece orchestra under the name of "The Dixie Players." Under the able leadership of Mrs. Raymond Joslin, this musical company has developed a remarkable skill and is the equal of a majority of our Chautauqua companies. The orchestra is composed of two first violins, second violin, cornet, trombone, piano and drums. They not only play as a regular orchestra, but also as a string band, and in addition, solos and duets on the various instruments. They play popular, sacred and classical music equally well, which makes their program of interest not only to skilled musicians, but to the general public as well. They will give a concert in Dickson in a few weeks, and later at several points in this and adjoining counties.

NOTICE.

To the Voters of Dickson County:

I wish to take this means of thanking those who stood so loyal by me in my present race for Trustee, and to assure them of my appreciation; also, I wish to say to those who saw fit to oppose me that I hold no ill will toward them in exercising their rights and privileges at the ballot box.

While the race was a hotly contested one, and I went down in defeat by only a few votes, I congratulate Mr. Doty and extend to him my best wishes.

Respectfully,
SLAYDEN HUNT.

MEN RESPOND TO MINISTERS CALL.

A representative body of men responded to the call issued by the Ministers of the Ministerial Association to meet them at the M. E. Church last Sunday afternoon for the purpose of devising plans to which to make Dickson a cleaner and better town.

The meeting was opened with prayer offered by Rev. R. L. Montgomery, after which Rev. T. J. Stricklin, Chairman of the Ministerial Association, outlined the purpose of the meeting. Rev. W. W. Baxter was then introduced, and made a few remarks in regard to the betterment of Dickson.

Rev. John Durrett spoke at length upon the many advantages Dickson had over other towns in this section and earnestly urged the citizens to wake up and help the officers rid the town of the alleged existing evils, and make Dickson a better place in which to live.

At the conclusion of his remarks, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Be it Resolved by this call meeting of the ministers of our town, That we as citizens of Dickson appreciate the efforts of our preachers to make our fair little city a better and cleaner town to live in, and pledge to them our hearty support in this movement. 2nd, That it is the sense of this meeting that a mass-meeting be held next Sunday at 3 p. m. to formulate means and methods whereby this may be accomplished. 3rd, That the following committee be appointed and authorized to take charge and arrange the program for that occasion as well as all subsequent public meetings:

H. T. COWAN, Chairman
B. F. McCREARY,
R. L. MONTGOMERY."

The above committee is preparing an interesting program for next Sunday afternoon, at which time the public is urged to be present. The program and place of meeting will be announced from the various pulpits next Sunday morning.
